

CURRICULUM VITAE

Hajali Najafoglu

Professor of inorganic chemistry

Kafkas University, Kars, Turkey

Contact and identifiers

Full name (as in publications)	Hacali Necefoğlu
Name in Azerbaijani	Hacıəli Nəcəfoğlu
Country of residence	Turkey
Scientific field	Inorganic chemistry

Profile summary

Hajali Najafoglu is professor of inorganic chemistry at Kafkas University. His doctorate is in inorganic chemistry from the Azerbaijan Academy of Sciences. His master's degree is in organic chemistry and his first degree is in chemistry, both from Azerbaijan State University. The CV does not give the years of those degrees. He was an assistant professor at Kafkas University in 1992–1995, an associate professor in 1995–1998, and a professor from 1998. Publications from the 1970s use the name G. N. Nadzhafov.

Education

Years	Degree	Field / thesis title	Institution, city, country
	Doctorate	Inorganic chemistry. Year not stated	Azerbaijan Academy of Sciences
	Master's degree	Organic chemistry. Year not stated	Azerbaijan State University
	First degree	Chemistry. Year not stated	Azerbaijan State University

Academic and professional positions

Years	Position	Department / unit	Institution, city, country
1998–present	Professor	Inorganic chemistry. A further line reads 2003–without a new institution	Kafkas University, Kars, Turkey
1995–1998	Associate Professor		Kafkas University
1992–1995	Assistant Professor		Kafkas University
1991–1992	Visiting faculty		Atatürk University, Erzurum, Turkey
1988–1991	Assistant professor		Azerbaijan State University, Baku
1977–1985	Senior laboratory assistant, research assistant, engineer, and junior researcher		Azerbaijan Academy of Sciences
